

Latino Social Workers Organization

National Latinx Social Work Conference 2022

Sponsor: Latin American Recruitment and Educational Services (LARES) at the University of Illinois-Chicago

Join us in the Chicago on April 7, 8, and 9, 2022

Conference Location:

University of Illinois – Chicago
750 South Halsted Street
Chicago, IL 60607

LSWO website: www.lswo.org

Call for Workshops, Panels, and Student Poster Sessions

April 7-9, 2022

The goals of the presentations are to advance knowledge and skill in the areas of research, clinical practice, community intervention, and advocacy.

The LSWO Conference committee is open to all proposals which are concerned with Social Work Practice within Latinx communities. The Pandemic has changed social work practice in the future, as well as higher education. We look forward to proposals focusing on the Latinx community and the Pandemic. Consistent with all of our programs, we are seeking proposals on the following topics which have been asked for by previous attendees:

- Telehealth during the Pandemic
- Ethics – Integration of technology, social media for therapeutic purposes, and confidentiality as it relates to documentation and privacy.
- Suicide and Self-mutilation
- Mindfulness-Based Cognitive Therapy
- Treatment of ADHD using medication and non-medication approaches
- Internal Family Systems Therapy Model
- Child Welfare
- Solution Focused Therapy
- Somatic Experiencing approach
- Autism and Sensory Disorders
- Emotionally Focused Therapy
- Social justice
- Immigration
- Unconscious Bias/Micro aggressions in the workplace.
- Issues of racial equity
- Advocacy Training
- School Social Work
- Faith/Spirituality in SW Practice
- Geographic Information Systems
- Library Social Work Practice
- Legal system (sexual harassment, immigration, rights in the workplace, incarceration)
- Leadership
- Attachment (addiction, trauma, education, children),
- Positive psychology
- Transference / countertransference
- Use of technologies (Apps, Ted Talks, Podcast)
- LGBTQIA Social Work Practice
- Emotional intelligence with children and adults
- Advanced practice in DBT
- Trauma Informed Care
- Complex trauma
- CBT/THC for treatment of pain and anxiety and completion of state forms
- Domestic Violence in the LGBTQ+ community
- Group Therapy in Latinx Community
- Arts/Music/Poetry in Therapy
- Community Organizing
- DACA
- Social Work / Police / EMT Response Approach

- Workshop and Panel Proposals are due by September 25, 2021
- Student Poster Sessions are due by November 15, 2021

Submissions will be assessed by the following variables:

- Clarity, organization, and quality of content.
- Experience with and depth of knowledge about the proposal content.
- Innovation and creativity in practice, leadership, advocacy, and research.
- Relevance and applicability to clinical, mezzo, and macro practice, within the Latinx community
- Relevance to the Cultural Competency Standards and/or Code of Ethics
- Integration of ejournal literature, theories, frameworks, or perspectives, etc.

A. Proposal Cover Sheet:

1. An enticing, captivating presentation title (up to 12 words max) that clearly conveys the presentation content.

B. Type of Presentation

1. Panel Presentations are limited to 3 speakers, and Workshop Proposals are limited to up to 3 speakers, and Student Poster Sessions can have up to 2 presenters for poster sessions. (Note: When your ready to upload your proposal make sure the primary speaker provides the most accessible email address.

C. Presenter Information for Workshops or Panel Presentations for Student Posters:

1. Each presenter's name, highest social work and/or other academic degree, license level, current job title, and employer. Indicate lead presenter if there is more than one presenter. All communications regarding conference 2022 Conference go to the lead presenter who develops the proposal, and upload at www.lsw.org or www.lsw2020.com
2. Each presenter's mailing address, phone numbers (work and home), and email address, and resume/vitaes.

D. Questions Regarding Your Proposed Presentation

The following questions may be answered with bullet points and/or 3 to 4 sentences:

1. What is/are the core idea(s) of the presentation?
2. What innovations in direct practice, administration, policy, research, education, advocacy, or theory are featured in your presentation?
3. What is the connection of your topic to issues of social and economic justice, culture, ethics, advocacy and/or policy? Please be specific.
4. Every presentation must address issues in the Latinx population. How will your presentation address them? Please be specific.
5. How will your presentation format engage the audience and promote interaction? (Based on feedback from past attendees, it is not acceptable to just read your PowerPoint presentation.)

E. Abstract

Abstract must be a maximum of 250 words.

F. Learning Objectives

List four (4) measurable learning objectives.

G. Reading List

Please include a reading list, journal literature. or bibliography which supports your proposal.

After completing your proposal (A-G), then go to www.lsw.org or www.lsw2022.com and submit your proposal online.

LSWO Latinx Advisory Committee

Adriana Gonzalez Sandrolini, LCSW
Susie Ortega, LCSW
Mayra Soto Gonzalez, LCSW
Norma Haro, LCSW

Matilde Torres, LCSW
Alejandra Reyes, LCSW
Josette Heredia Carmona, LCSW

LSWO Faculty Reviewers

Leticia Villarreal Sosa, PhD, LCSW
Dominican University
Iraida V. Carrion, PhD, LCSW
University of South Florida
Carmen Monico, PhD, MSW, MS
Elon University

Rey C. Martinez, PhD
New Mexico Highlands University
Pablo Arriaza, PhD, LCSW
West Chester University
Catherine Marrs Fuchsel, PhD, LCSW
St. Catherine University

LSWO Social Media Marketing

If you have any questions, contact the LSWO at www.lsw.org or www.lsw2022.com

Email address: socialwork@lsw.org Adrian Delgado, LCSW at adrian@lsw.org or Norma Haro, LCSW, at nharo@lsw.org

Join us in Chicago for 3 days of Keynotes, Panels, Workshops, and Student Poster Sessions. Great opportunity to Learn, Network, and Share!
Exhibitor and Sponsorship opportunities!

“The only National Latinx Social Work Conference in the Nation which provides 3 days of continuing education focused on social work practice within Latinx communities.”
Share with your colleagues, faculty, students, and community assets providing essential human services to the Latinx communities.